1 Begin with a calm plan

Bring this guide to any child-care visit. Take your time, notice how the routine is explained, and write down what matters to your family.

A helpful reminder. A good fit is personal. You are allowed to ask questions, take notes, and compare options at your own pace.

Observe	Ask	Compare

1.1 Prepare at your own pace

- ☐ Notice how arrival, release, and visitor procedures are explained.
- ☐ Ask how daily routines, supervision, communication, meals, rest, and transitions are handled.
- ☐ Confirm which ages and programs are currently available at this specific location.
- ☐ Write down questions about transportation, tuition, scheduling, and emergency communication.
- ☐ Compare what you observed with your family's priorities before making a decision.

2 Free information you can use

The short subjects below support both careful reading and quick scanning. Mark the topics that matter now, then return to the others when they become useful.

A Parent's Daycare Tour Question Checklist

A practical, non-promotional checklist covering supervision, arrival and departure procedures, daily routines, communication, meals, and questions to bring on any center tour.

How to Compare Safety and Access Practices at Child-Care Centers

Plain-language prompts for asking how visitors enter, how pickup authorization works, how families receive updates, and how emergency procedures are communicated.

Preparing a Child for a New Care Routine

Age-appropriate, evergreen ideas for discussing a new schedule, practicing drop-off, sharing comfort information, and keeping the first weeks predictable.

Questions to Ask About Infant and Toddler Daily Care

A parent-friendly guide to discussing feeding, diapering, rest routines, developmental play, transitions, and communication preferences with a prospective provider.

Making an After-School Plan That Works for Your Family

Questions parents can use to compare pickup timing, supervised homework time, activities, meals, transportation, and end-of-day communication.

Understanding Preschool and VPK Options

A neutral overview of questions families can ask about age eligibility, classroom placement, schedules, learning routines, and the availability of VPK at a specific location.

2.1 Published services or program areas to confirm

Use this list as a conversation guide. Availability, eligibility, scope, pricing, and location details can change.

- Infant and toddler care for children from 6 weeks through age 2 at the 33 N. Park Avenue Apopka center
- Kindergarten and school-age care for ages 5 through 12 at the 33 N. Park Avenue Apopka center
- Before- and after-school programs
- Summer programs
- Preschool child care and VPK programs listed as company-wide offerings
- School-age homework assistance and enrichment activities

Topics I want to discuss

3 Questions to bring with you

- ☐ How are children greeted, supervised, and released to authorized adults?
- ☐ How do caregivers communicate about routines, learning, meals, rest, and transitions?
- ☐ Which ages, classrooms, and programs are currently available at this location?
- ☐ How are allergies, medication procedures, and emergency communication explained?
- ☐ What are the current hours, tuition, fees, transportation options, and enrollment steps?
- ☐ What can my family do to support a comfortable transition?
